LOS ANGELES SUPERIOR COURT – CENTRAL DISTRICT (Downtown)

LA County Family Court Services Program

111 N. Hill Street, Room 241

Los Angeles, CA 90012

Family Court Services, a project of the Superior Court, offers numerous services to the public with child custody and visitation issues. The Family Court Services Mediation Office provides an opportunity for parents to write their own custody and visitation plans. (Financial matters are not discussed in this setting.) If parents cannot agree on a custody plan for their children, the Family Court Services Child Custody Evaluations Office may be ordered to provide the court and parents with information and recommendations. A fee may be charged for an evaluation.

Additionally, the Family Court Services staff of mental health professionals offers child-focused programs for parents who are divorcing, separating or have children together. Parents and Children Together (PACT) is an educational program that assists parents in helping their children adjust to changes in their family and is mandatory for parents who have a custody and/or visitation dispute. Parenting Without Conflict is a six week parent education program for high conflict families. Parents attend this program by court order.

These programs are free.
